Why we choose the Calla Lily

The longest night of the year occurs around December 21, commonly referred to as the winter solstice. The nights are dark and the air is cool as the earth tilts itself away from the sun. Experiencing the death of a loved one is certainly a dark day in our lives. Our natural response is grief and sadness.

The early Romans used the calla lily as a symbol of hope and rebirth during December's long days. A hardy flower not requiring much light, the blooming calla lily would represent that life can continue and flourish even during what may seem like unending bleakness. In grief, our loss often seems overwhelming, but as the days move forward we feel more warmth from the sun and know our love and memories for those passed will never be forgotten.

We choose the calla lily as part of our identity to let you know we recognize the dark days and will do our part to help you begin the process of realizing the loss. Everyone experiences grief in a different way, but we can all find inspiration in knowing better days are ahead.

Prices effective June 1, 2024. All prices subject to change without notice.

Each package represents a price based on the selections included in the package. There is no deductions for items not used. Merchandise may be upgraded. Your funeral director or preplanning consultant will be able to advise you further on additional ways to personalize the service and customization options.

When you first begin the process of designing a funeral, the decisions you'll face might seem overwhelming at first. We're here to help you tackle the choices one by one and make the journey one of love, healing and life celebration.

Whether it's formal or informal, traditional or offbeat, a funeral provides an opportunity for family and friends to gather and support one another in taking the first steps of their healing journey. A service can take place in any setting - at your home, outdoors, or at our facilities, for example - and can incorporate music, poetry, or art in the celebration of a life well-lived. There are endless possibilities for what the service can be, and we're honored to go above and beyond in our duty to meet your personalized and specific requests.

Our staff is experienced in understanding and graciously accommodating the needs of all beliefs, faiths, lifestyles, and relationships. We're here to answer your questions and guide you through the decisions you'll need to make, and will encourage you to take your time to figure out the most meaningful and fitting way to honor your loved one and incorporate the elements that you and your family find meaningful.

Details make the difference . . .

There's no rulebook for what a funeral can or can't be. A funeral serves to offer family and friends an opportunity for healing, support, and celebration of a well-lived life. We help you design a one-of-a-kind farewell for your loved one that reflects their individuality and spirit.

When it comes to the little things at a remembrance event, Stewart Baxter has them covered. Here are a few of the many items that are provided in our service when you select a package that includes our professional staff in coordinating the event.

Livestream Services

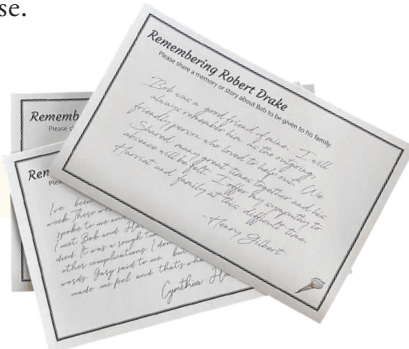

We offer online live streaming/webcasting, and video recording. We capture the stories and memories shared at events at the funeral home or other location of the services. This is especially important for those who are unable to attend.

Memorialization

Tables and an ample supply of easels to display your treasured photographs, memory boards, awards, degrees, collections, etc. are available for your use.

Remembrance Cards

Cards are printed and made available for friends and family to write and share a fond memory or story.

There are many ways to tailor a traditional service and combine familiar rites and rituals with a nod to your loved one's personality and lifestyle, like special music, a prized collection, or personal items representing a passion or hobby. We are here to help make your service more personal and less stressful.

Estate Help & Grief Support . . .

At Stewart Baxter, we understand that the loss of a loved one is a long and difficult journey, one that is unique for every family. We are committed to helping you through the whole process, long after services have been held, and we have teams of professionals who will reach out to you to offer support in a variety of ways.

We will follow up to offer our support and grief resources, and to help with any questions or concerns you may have. Our estate specialists also help families wrap up the non-legal estate issues. We help notify companies and organizations, make sure you receive benefits, and even protect you by stopping junk mail, blocking solicitors, and setting fraud protection. We take care of necessary tasks for you, so you can mourn with your family and friends without having to worry about things being overlooked.

Honoring, Recognizing, and Respecting

Flags

A flag of the United States of America, complete with gold fringe, tassels, and topped with a gold eagle, is posted next to the casket as a proud reminder of the Veteran's service to our country. Desktop flags of the United States, State of Iowa, and branch of service will be displayed at the visitation and/or service.

We also secure a United States flag for displaying during services. This flag is then presented to the spouse or children of the veteran.

A FREE FLAG CASE is provided to all Veterans* with the purchase of a Casketed Burial Package. This includes a certificate for free Name Plate Engraving

Military Tributes

Custom Military Tribute Panels are available for the caps of most caskets, providing a way to highlight the Veteran's service to our country. Many caskets, and some urns, also offer LifeSymbols® corners or LifeStories® medallions customization which can be added to provide additional recognition. These tribute items are included in the price of the caskets and urns for which they are available.

Cemetery Services

Whether choosing a national cemetery, the Iowa Veterans' Cemetery, or a private cemetery, we will assist the Veteran's family in arranging for the cemetery services they select. This includes ensuring that all of the appropriate paperwork and information is submitted and that benefits are provided for interment. If the burial is not in a national cemetery, we will further assist families in securing the marker provided by the Department of Veterans Affairs for its placement in a private cemetery.

Military Honors

We are honored to make arrangements for the final demonstration that a grateful nation can provide to a Veteran and their family, the rendering of Military Funeral Honors. If desired, we can also arrange that a bugler will be available for the playing of Taps. Many times, the local Veterans organizations are also called upon to help with this special tribute.

Casket Bearer Recognition

United States flag lapel pins will be presented to each of the casket or urn bearers in civilian attire as our gift in recognition of their service in escorting the Veteran to their place of rest.

Patriot Tribute

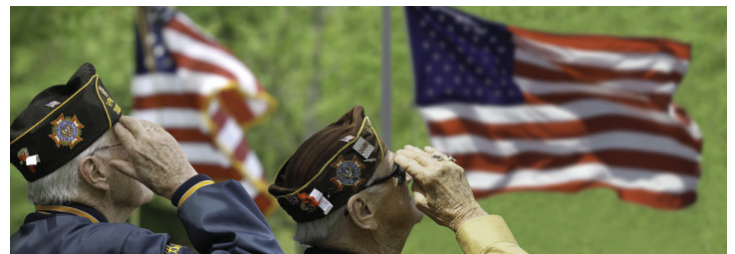

When we transfer a Veteran to their final resting place, the funeral coach displays the emblem of the Veteran's branch of service, unabashedly proclaiming to our community that a Veteran is being honored.

Veterans' Benefits

We will complete and file all of the paperwork required to apply for Veterans Benefits. These benefits are provided at no cost to the family in recognition of the sacrifice and contributions of our nation's Veterans.

Presidential Memorial Certificate

Certificates that bear the signature of the President of the United States of America are presented in recognition and commemoration of each veteran's service to our country. We procure a certificate for the surviving spouse and children of the Veteran. These are treasured family keepsakes honoring their service.

At Stewart Baxter Funeral & Memorial Services, we are committed to Veterans and their families.

*Requires furnishing a copy of VA Form DD-214 (Discharge Papers) showing honorable discharge.
